

BUILDING PEACE THROUGH COMMUNITY STRATEGIES IN SOMALIA

Peace initiatives

Inclusive Dialogue

Conflict Mediation

Youth and women leadership

Tea for Peace

Conflict Resolution Techniques

Community Events

Vocational Training

Results

3,385 people who received psychosocial support confirmed that this intervention has helped to improve their lives.

3,802 community members reported improved social cohesion within the community.

+15 peace committees established

2,759 youths involved in developing and implementing peace initiatives.

+370 migrants demanded for their rights

+500 acquire vocational skills and provided with start up kits

Key Takeaways

Inclusive community participation fosters trust.

Regular dialogue resolves long standing dispute.

Celebrating cultural events promotes social cohesion.

Multi-stakeholder engagement is vital for sustainable peace.